

britishcourses.com

Terms and Conditions

By using britishcourses.com, you agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions and accept them in full during the entire period you remain as a student of the britishcourses.com learning platform.

1. You are to complete the registration form in full when accessing for the first time to the britishcourses.com. You can select either A/L Registration or Other category based on your requirement
2. The online access is given to you by britishcourses.com only authorizes a single user two students can not use the same account under any circumstances, Also you are strictly instructed not to share your user ID with others.
3. The password set by you at the platform must be securely used. You are strictly barred to share with others. Password must include one Capital Letter & One number
4. You are permitted to use the online access exclusively for educational purposes. Any other purpose other than the purpose you are given access to is strictly prohibited.
5. You must make the payments at initially for the videos and educational resources of your choice. Once paid, the payment will not be refunded under any circumstances.
6. If you are doing a Cash deposit, your access will be given within 1 to 3 days' time. You need to write the reference number or include it when transferring funds on the deposit slip.
7. Once you make the required payments you will be given access to the class(es)/ videos and educational resources. Videos will be expired after the exam date of the relevant batch. (This is based on published exam time table of relevant institute) If you need to re-watch for the next exam, you have to purchase it again. In addition to this we are not allowed for students to transfer to other batches or other qualifications.
8. Videos will be uploaded in frequent basis to the website and this could be weekly, 2 weeks per time or monthly.
9. Once you logged in and done with watching videos, you need to log out all the time.
10. One student can use only one Computer & One mobile to watch videos. Both devices cannot be used at the same time. However, if your device is broken you can contact our support staff and reset devices.
11. If students are doing suspected activities such as user ID Sharing, Use of more devices, Same account used by more than one person, trying to copy videos and etc, your account will be permanently blocked.
12. You are aware that in case you encounter any technical failure arising out of a variety of reasons, not limited to, such as electricity failure, data shortage, etc causing you to disconnect from the class/video, you have to restore your resources to log again. You need to have a smooth internet connection as well a good device to watch videos at britishcourses.com
13. You are strongly prohibited to download, copy, alter and distort data, share with others the class(es)/videos. Failing to do so will take legal actions for all direct & indirect participants relating to these.

14. For discounts, including repurchase discounts, we may request supporting documents like your previous result sheet subsequent to the purchase. Failure to provide requested documents may result in account suspension or blocking.

15. Reading materials & Questions (Exams) given by britishcourses.com should not be shared with any other and use for any other activities other than learning purposes.

16. Once a student wins a prize after enrolling for a course, britishcourses.com will have authority to publish them for any promotional & motivational activities for future students.

17. Telegram groups are there for some subjects and you can ask questions from lecturers. However unnecessary messages cannot be sent and lecturers or britishcourses.com are not bound to answer for everything but only the important matters. It is solely britishcourses (PVT) Ltd management decision to remove any users from Any Telegram group.

18. All the class(es)/videos and other resources are copyrighted properties/ contents of britishcourses.com (britishcourses (pvt) Ltd). You are aware that any violations as per above will be treated as an offense penalizable under the Property Rights Act Article 36 of 2003.

19. Students are not required to apply for visas for whatever reason since all classes are conducted via an online platform.

20. The institute collects students' sensitive information (Name, Date of birth, ACCA course-related details, etc.) for record-keeping purposes and such results data are retained under the country's data protection policies, which may be governed by legal requirements or internal guidelines. The institute respects student privacy and only shares exam results with third parties upon receiving students' consent.

21. Our dedicated institute website is compatible with any kind of browser.